

Delta Gamma x One Student 'Sexversations' on Facebook Live

During Sexual Assault Awareness Month in 2017, Delta Gamma and our partners at One Student hosted three Sexversations on Facebook Live. These discussions were open to anyone, and talked about what consent is, ending rape culture and dismantling myths about sexual assault. After having successful conversations with these, they've decided to host these discussion every Wednesday! Anyone can tune in and for an open and honest live chat by visiting the One Student Facebook page Wednesdays at 9:30 p.m. Eastern Time.

Questions on cards:
- If a person does not fight back, does that mean it was not rape?
- Can you think of a time when you judged others based on stories they shared about sex?
