

During 2017 the National Panhellenic Conference Foundation marked more than 20 years of advancing the sorority experience. The NPC Foundation was incorporated in Indiana in 1995 and is a tax- exempt, public educational charity under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. To advance its mission, the NPC Foundation supports educational and charitable programs addressing women's health, safety, education, leadership and personal and professional development.

Mission: To advance the 26 women's organizations of the National Panhellenic Conference and their commitment to personal growth by raising funds for and underwriting initiatives that launch and sustain women leaders.

Vision: Every woman will be a better citizen because of her lifelong sorority experience.

Values: The priorities and activities of the NPC Foundation are based upon four primary values:

- The Panhellenic spirit that bonds 26 member organizations,
- Lifelong commitment to intellectual, personal and social growth,
- The power of the individual and the empowerment of women, and
- The betterment of campus culture and society in general.

SOMETHING OF VALUE

In 2017, the NPC Foundation funded the work to refresh the “Something of Value” (SOV) program, a full-day interactive community building experience to help College Panhellenic communities build capacity, relationships and influence in addressing risky situations in their fraternity/sorority community. Contributions to the “Something of Value” Program Endowment support delivery of the program from coast to coast.

SUNFLOWER SALES

Sunflower sticker sales celebrate and recognize Panhellenic friendships. Proceeds benefit the Spirit Fund (unrestricted gifts). 2017 annual meeting sales:

DISTINGUISHED YOUNG WOMEN

NPC and the NPC Foundation funded two $1,000 scholarships with Distinguished Young Women, a nationwide program that offers college scholarships and life skills training to young women.

HOW THE FOUNDATION GETS ITS FUNDS

When making a gift to the NPC Foundation, you may choose to give to unrestricted or restricted funds. The majority of Foundation funding comes from restricted gifts or through endowments that support charitable, leadership and educational purposes.

By contributing to an existing fund or endowment, giving a restricted gift or creating a new endowment, your tax-deductible monetary gift allows you to add your support for the specific programs and initiatives that reflect your interests.

COLLEGE PANHELLENIC ACADEMY

The Foundation supports this NPC educational program designed to equip College Panhellenic officers and fraternity/sorority advisors with the most up-to-date Panhellenic knowledge. 2017 attendance:
